

TDY/Business travel

Work left to do for tomorrow's meeting? Tired of getting bumped from hotel rooms? Navy Lodges want and welcome your business.

"Due to higher demand and higher rates, hotels have little incentive to make rooms available at the government rate," said Mike Bockelman, director of the Navy Lodge Program. "According to 'Government Executive' magazine, occupancy rates in some major cities are topping 70 percent, and the cost of those rooms is getting higher all the time. Nationally, room rates have soared 12.7 percent. Our rooms are always below per diem rates and are up to 40 percent less expensive than comparable civilian hotels."

With 41 Navy Lodges around the world, there's bound to be one nearby the next time you travel for TDY. Most Navy Lodges have Business Class rooms, which offer amenities including queen-sized bed, sofa, a desk with a computer hookup and a kitchenette. If you are burning the night oil, you can work on your presentation and cook yourself a midnight snack.

All Navy Lodge rooms are air conditioned, have cable TV with HBO, a video cassette player, direct-dial telephone service and a kitchenette complete with microwave and utensils. You'll also find housekeeping service, vending machines, video rental service and guest laundry facilities as well as handicapped accessible and nonsmoking rooms. Free local calls, in-room coffee and newspapers as well as convenient on-base parking are also available during your stay.
